New Stamp Lincoln Is Beardless

"Abraham Lincoln" today paid a visit to the Federal Building to inspect the new 1-cent stamp honoring the noted President.

The "Great Emancipator" was Charles E. Bull, who has portrayed the President for years on the stage and screen. He lives at 6656 E. Fairfield ave.

In showing the new Lincoln 1-cent stamps, Postmaster Otto K. Olesen said that they will go on sale today in Hodgenville, Ky, near Lincoln's birthplace. They will be sold here tomorrow.

The new green stamp features a reproduction of the "Beardless Lincoln" portrait by George Peter Alexander Healy, done from life in 1860 shortly after Lincoln was elected President.
